

SUMMER AT CALUMET

Whether you park an RV, pitch a tent, or stay in a room in the Conference Center, summer is a wonderful time to be at Calumet. Come for a day ... or stay all summer! There is always something to do and plenty of planned activities for children, adults, and families. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner are available every day. Professional lifeguards are always on duty from sunrise to sunset. In the evening you can sing around a campfire, go on a scavenger hunt, enjoy guest entertainment, play games, or just look up at the moonlit night.

4th of July

A day packed with activity. All-you-can-eat chicken barbecue for $8. Free Blue Hill Brass Quintet concert at 6:30 pm. Top it all off with an ice cream sundae.

Open House for Prospective Campers

Saturday, July 18, 1:00-3:00 pm

Thinking about summer camp for your child? Come to this summer's Open House. Have a tour of Calumet. See the inside of cabins, tents, and other facilities. Meet some camp counselors. Do a group activity. Pre-registration necessary. You are welcome to purchase lunch at the Beach Barbecue from 12:00-1:30.

Summer Finale for Families & Adults

August 23-28

"Love to Serve"

Chaplain: Pr. Julie Reuning-Scherer

Musician: Jonathan Reuning-Scherer

All the facilities of Calumet are open to you. There are daily adult workshops. Kids have plenty of supervised activities. Evening programs are fun for all ages. The music will be great and you will go home refreshed.

An Extra Week of Summer &

Labor Day Weekend

August 28-September 7

Enjoy this beautiful time of year in New Hampshire. Stay in a cabin by the lake, a heated cabin in the woods, Staff House by the lake with a group, or a room in the Conference Center. Although no formal program is offered, the beach is beckoning, sports facilities are available, boats can be rented, the walking paths are quiet, and meals are available. Length of stay is up to you, but once you're here, you won't want to leave.
